Scotch Whisky Connoisseur

AN EPIC JOURNEY TO DISCOVER THE BEST WHISKY IN SCOTLAND

Most Scotch Whisky lovers agree that just a sip can evoke an entire sensory experience: visions of craggy moors and rolling hills interrupted only by an endless sky; the smell of peat bogs and handcrafted casks; a cool, crisp, windswept landscape. Indeed, many people admit to beginning a life-long romance with Scotch from their very first taste. And that's exactly what sets this prized spirit apart from others and often stirs such passion in those who partake.

But true whisky aficionados also know that some of the very best whiskies—those rare, single-cask, and well-aged expressions—can only be found close to their source. In fact, many distilleries frequently offer hand-fill opportunities from some of their most prized casks, but one must visit in order to take them up on the offer. In addition, each year, special, exclusive bottlings are released in very limited quantities and, likewise, are only available to those who travel to the distillery.

Join us for this exclusive tour across the land of Scotch Whisky as we travel under the expert guidance of renowned whisky authority Ronnie Berri. This once-in-a-lifetime journey will fill you with a sense of excitement and intrigue as we go in search of the most rare and special single malts available today. Together we enjoy insider access at distilleries and go into warehouses to sample the treasures we find. Along the way, you acquire six full-size bottles of single-cask and distillery-only whiskies to take home and add to your personal collection. Our experience is heightened further by the evocative settings in which we find ourselves—idyllic and atmospheric Scottish backdrops against which whisky is certainly made to be enjoyed: the shores of picturesque lochs, stunning glens that are dwarfed by majestic mountains, windswept peat bogs that smell of salt air, and beside the roaring fireplaces of historic castles and manors.

Day-to-Day Tour Summary

DAY 1

ARRIVE IN EDINBURGH

Arriving in stunning Edinburgh, Scotland today you transfer via private car service to the beautiful Principal Hotel which is located in the heart of Edinburgh's sophisticated New Town. Your time is free to relax, explore, or shop until later this afternoon when we gather with tour leader Ronnie Berri for a special welcome reception and opening whisky tasting at a exclusive venue coveted by whisky lovers. Afterword, we enjoy a gourmet, 5-course dinner paired with rare and exclusive malts while Ronnie tells us about the tour ahead. Following dinner, an optional gathering at one of the best bars in the city to enjoy whisky is offered for all who wish to join. [R | D]

EDINBURGH TO SPEYSIDE

Following breakfast, we make an early departure from Edinburgh and travel north across the famous Firth of Forth and then continue into the center of Scotland. Mid-morning, we visit a Highland distillery where the manager personally leads us through a special tasting. Afterward, we travel west through the Highlands to visit two additional distilleries where we enjoy warehouse tastings and the opportunities to fill bottles directly from the cask. This evening we arrive in Speyside and the picturesque town of Rothes where we will stay for the next two nights. (B, L)

SPEYSIDE

We spend the day in Speyside today, enjoying in-depth visits at two of its most celebrated distilleries. The first stop is at iconic Speyside brand where we not only have the opportunity to visit its warehouse and sample some malts directly from the cask, but also get to taste some of it's rare historic bottlings and have the opportunity to fill our own bottle. After lunch, we travel to a progressive distillery where we have the opportunity to taste some of its unique peated malts and intriguing wood finishes. This afternoon we have the opportunity to sample some of the unique expressions from one of Scotland's premier whisky bottlers before returning to our stately hotel in Rothes where we enjoy a gourmet meal paired with Speyside Malts. ## Day-to-Day Tour Summary

DAY 4

SPEYSIDE TO WICK

We depart Speyside this morning, but not before visiting one last distillery as we make our way westward toward the Highland capitol of Inverness and then head north once again, traveling to the uppermost area of the Highlands. In the mid afternoon, we enjoy an extensive tasting at one of Scotland's largest whisky producers before continuing to the town of Wick and settling into the elegantly-restored, 15-century castle where we rest our heads tonight. [B]

DAY 5

EXCURSION TO ORKNEY

An early ferry crossing this morning takes us over the North Sea to the legendary Orkney Islands—home to some of the most impressive prehistoric sites in Europe and also two of Scotland's most celebrated distilleries. After disembarking, we travel first to visit the amazing Standing Stones of Stenness and the Ring of Brodgar. Then, we continue to Kirkwall, the main settlement on Orkney, where we enjoy a special visit to Scapa Distillery and sample its unique island malt. This afternoon, we enjoy a true highlight of the tour with a visit to Highland Park Distillery, including a tutored tasting of 7 whiskies from its award-winning range and the exclusive opportunity to buy a hand filled single-cask expression of Highland Park. This afternoon we return to the mainland where we spend the night in the charming town of Dornoch, not far from one of the distilleries we will visit tomorrow. [B]

DAY 6

DORNOCH TO OBAN

We visit a nearby distillery this morning, enjoying a tasting with the charismatic manager. Afterward, we travel southwest through the Highlands, making stops along the way to enjoy fine malts in the picturesque surroundings we encounter: beautiful lochs and glens nestled in the shadows of dramatic mountains. This afternoon we arrive the charming seaside town of Oban where the rest of the day is left free for you to explore and enjoy a nice dinner, perhaps sampling some of the renowned seafood to be found in the Victorian port that is the gateway to the Hebridian Islands. [B]

Day-to-Day Tour Summary

OBAN TO ISLAY

We set out early this morning and travel to the ferry port at Kennacraig where we embark for the afternoon departure which takes us across the Sea of the Hebrides to the stunning Isle of Islay. This remote isle, dotted with Celtic ruins, remarkable natural scenery, and abundant wildlife, is widely considered the mecca for Scotch Whisky lovers around the globe. Following our arrival, we visit two of the island's eight celebrated distilleries where we are treated to an extensive tastings, one with the distillery manager. This evening we check into the island's newest hotel and enjoy a whisky-and-food pairing dinner together. [B | D]

ISLAY TO CAMPBELTOWN

We visit two of Islay's most celebrated distilleries this morning, enjoying an extensive warehouse tasting (with the warehouse manager) at the first and a unique opportunity to bottle our own fantastic single cask at the second. This afternoon we catch the ferry to return to the mainland and then travel south along the Kintyre Peninsula to Scotland's smallest and most remote whisky-producing region, Campbeltown. After checking into our atmospheric lodging, we gather for one final dinner together in the hotel's classic restaurant. [B | R | D]

CAMPBELTOWN TO EDINBURGH

We visit Campbeltown's two main distilleries this morning as well as Scotland's oldest whisky bottler, Cadenhead's. Each of these afford excellent tastings as well as provide unique opportunities to hand fill bottles of excellent single malt or acquire exclusive, distillery-only bottlings. Before departing Campbeltown, we enjoy a unique lunch featuring some of the excellent local seafood all paired with whisky. After lunch, we make the return drive north along the Kintyre peninsula, stopping at one final distillery on the outskirts of Scotland's largest city, Glasgow, late this afternoon. The tasting here provides a final opportunity to hand fill a bottle of Lowland malt following our tasting session. Afterward, we make our way back to Edinburgh and say our goodbyes as our robust whisky odyssey draws to a close. [B | L]

A NOTE ABOUT THE DISTILLERIES

A goal of this tour is to lead you to opportunities where you can sample and acquire the best rare, limited editions of single malts currently available. No list of distilleries published far in advance, therefore, will be entirely accurate. We reserve the right to revise this list based upon availability and offerings at the time of the tour.

Select Lodging

The Principal - Edinburgh

This luxury hotel—ideally situated between Edinburgh’s Old and New Towns and just steps from Waverly train station—was previously known as the George Hotel. Each of its sophisticated rooms is individually decorated to retain old-world charm, yet provide the comfort and amenities of a world-class hotel.

The Station Hotel - Rothes

Located in the picturesque town of Rothes, the Station Hotel is ideally situated for exploring the distilleries of Speyside. The hotel offers the rare opportunity to experience the style and elegance of a bygone era and is just steps away from shops, restaurants, and whisky bars.

Ackergill Tower Hotel - Wick

A striking 15th-century castle that overlooks Wick Bay, Ackergill Tower provides traditional and elegant rooms set in 32 acres of grounds. The rooms show original features and all boast stunning views. The spectacular wood-panelled dining hall and other public rooms provide an elegant setting for a relaxed getaway to the Highlands.
